WE DON'T JUST MOVE YOUR GOODS, WE PROTECT THEM

Before starting to load we place carpet protection throughout your home where necessary, we then use plastic protection for sofas and mattresses and all furniture is individually wrapped using soft felt transit blankets.

In addition, portable wardrobe cartons will be provided to ensure that your clothing is transported with the utmost care.

CANCELLED MOVE PROTECTION

Understanding that life's plans can sometimes shift unexpectedly, we're committed to offering you flexibility and peace of mind when it comes to rescheduling or cancelling your move.

When you book with us, you instantly benefit from a 14-day cooling-off period, ensuring you're completely at ease with your decision.

Should your plans change, there's no need to worry about cancellation charges. As long as you notify us at least 10 days prior to your move, we'll adjust your plans without any extra cost.

For added security, our cancellation waiver steps in to protect you from unforeseen change or cancellations up until the day before your move. This waiver, costing 20% of your move value, ensures that unexpected costs won't add to your stress.
